

HISTORICAL AND TOURISTIC PLACES OF ANKARA

Feride TUNCER

Zeliha KAPAN

Beyzanur AYZ

Hilal İFTDOĐAN

HAMAMÖNÜ

Hamamönü is one of the most beautiful places in Ankara. There are many restaurants and cafes. There are houses that have been restored. People come here to have fun and see the sights.

ATAKULE

It is a shopping mall in Ankara. There structure is in form of towers.
People come here and they have fun and they also meet their needs. It is one of the symbols of Ankara.

ROMAN BATHS

Roman Baths are one of historical places in Ankara. Formerly used as a settlement. As a result of the destruction, it was unusable now.

ANKARA CASTLE

It is a historic castle located in Ankara. There are structures in early periods. The exact date of its construction is unknown. It is home to several festivals each year.

TBMM

TBMM is located in the Ulus district of Ankara. It was opened on 23rd on April of 1920. It was converted into a museum on 23rd of April 1961. It gives important information about our history.

HACI BAYRAM VELI MOSQUE

It is located in the Ulus district of Ankara. It takes name from the tomb. Tomb of pilgrims for the feast was conducted in 1420. The mosque was renovated in 1914.

ANITKABIR

Anıtkabir is the mausoleum of the place for the president of the Republic of Turkey, Mustafa Kemal ATATÜRK. The mausoleum is very important for the Turkish nation. Every year on November 10 at the mausoleum of Atatürk ceremonies are held.

